

20 AUGUST 2019CIMIC GROUP'S CPB CONTRACTORS WINS $379M
NEPEAN HOSPITAL REDEVELOPMENT

CIMIC Group company CPB Contractors has been selected by the NSW Government to deliver the Nepean Hospital Redevelopment Stage 1.

The NSW Government funded project, involving construction of a new 14-storey clinical building, will generate revenue of approximately $379 million to CPB Contractors. The award follows CPB Contractors' recent selection by the NSW Government to deliver the Campbelltown Hospital Redevelopment Stage 2 project.

Work has already commenced at Nepean Hospital and is expected to be completed in 2021.

The new facility, across a building area of over 55,000m² at the existing hospital site in Kingswood in Western Sydney, will include a new emergency department, more than 200 overnight beds and more than 12 new operating theatres.

CIMIC Group Chief Executive Officer Michael Wright said: "CIMIC Group continues to provide essential infrastructure for local communities, including health facilities, public transport infrastructure and new motorways.

"We're committed to leveraging our strong experience and wide-ranging skills to meet these vital community needs now and for future generations."

CPB Contractors Managing Director Juan Santamaria said: "The Nepean Hospital Redevelopment Stage 1 builds on CPB Contractors' growing portfolio of hospital projects and our strong commitment to Western Sydney.

"CPB Contractors is proud to continue our close working relationships with the NSW Government and Western Sydney communities."

CPB Contractors is currently also delivering the Wagga Wagga Health Service Stage 3 Redevelopment, the Coffs Harbour Hospital Expansion Main Works, and the Campbelltown Hospital Redevelopment.

The company's other projects in Western Sydney include Parramatta Light Rail Stage 1, The Northern Road Stages 5 and 6 upgrades, and early earthworks contracts for Western Sydney Airport.
